TO YOUR FUTURE

Link this fortune—this fortune to be given away—to your future. It will link your future to success. It will link success to achievement. It will link achievement to Honor, High Position and Great Riches. Many a man, most EVERY man—and woman too—who occupies a position of affluence, owes the start to just such an opportunity—grasped in the 'Nick O' Time.' To see your opportunity; to grasp it when you see it; to buckle up your belt; to roll up your sleeves; to put a punch in your determination; to hang on like grim death until you force the issue—that my friend is TO SUCCEED. Here is your fortune:

$1000 IN GOLD 1st Award
$500 IN GOLD 2nd Award

TWO AWARDS OF $200 EACH.
TWO AWARDS OF $100 EACH.
TWO AWARDS OF $ 50 EACH.
TWO AWARDS OF $ 25 EACH.

10 per cent commission to all who do not win one of the above awards at the end and who comply with the rules.

All these golden awards—Ten of them—will be given away by The West Virginian on April 14, to the people who secure the most votes in the Golden Festival, according to the rules published on another page. The people who will be the winners will have won these awards entirely upon their laurels—will have won, using only their spare time gathering votes, the spare time that they usually fooled away. Everyone else who takes part in the campaign, who does not win one of the regular awards at the end, and who complies with the rules, will receive a commission of 10 per cent. You can be one of the Ten. You can be THE ONE of Ten. You can WIN THE THOUSAND. Do it! Link this fortune to your future! Your nomination blank is on another page.
